This autumn there's plenty of family-friendly activity going on in your local museum, most of which is free. There's Royal Blood events which bring history to life and are relevant to children's history education (particularly KS2 and KS3), as well as lots of fun things to do before, during and after half term, including Halloween quizzes, mystery trails and themed make-and-takes.

THE MYSTERY OF THE VANISHING QUEEN
19 JULY – 30 OCTOBER
MILESTONES MUSEUM, BASINGSTOKE

An interactive mystery in the Victorian streets of Milestones, included in the usual admission price. This fantastic experience for curious kids brings history to life, and you can even try the new escape room challenge 'Traitor's Escape', if you dare. With Victorian dress up, Halloween activities and a mystery trail, this exhibition brings together learning and fun.

CITY UNDER SIEGE
15 OCTOBER – 4 DECEMBER, CITY SPACE,
WINCHESTER DISCOVERY CENTRE

For over 2000 years, empires and invaders, kings and queens have fought over the city of Winchester. City Under Siege tells some these fascinating stories with objects, interactives and more, as well as special FREE half term activities for children with a local history lean.

ROYAL BLOOD
22 – 29 OCTOBER
THE WILLIS MUSEUM, BASINGSTOKE

As well as our fascinating Births, Battles and Beheadings exhibition for adults and children alike, join us at the Willis during half term for FREE trails, make-and-takes and fun on a Royal Blood theme. On 27 October we also have a family puppet theatre making workshop with a royal theme.

HALLOWEEN AT WESTGATE
22 – 30 OCTOBER
WESTGATE MUSEUM, WINCHESTER

The spooky Westgate Museum in Winchester will be decorated for Halloween and open especially for half term week, in addition to usual weekend opening hours. As well as our Halloween Horrors Spotter Quiz, there's also a make-and-take activity to do, both admission and activities are FREE.
