Dear Parent

I am writing to invite you to come along to one of our performances of 'TITANIC Lost Voices' which will take place at school on 28, 29 and 30 March 2012 at 7.30pm.

Admission will be £5 for adults and £3 for concessions. Tickets may be booked in advance each day from Student Reception from Monday 5 March, or some may be available on the door. To book tickets you can either telephone school and leave your requirements or complete the form below and return it with the appropriate payment. The form is only there for your convenience and tickets may be bought without it.

The story of the fate that befell the RMS Titanic in April 1912 is well known through the huge number of films and documentaries that have been made about it. Our show was originally written by Pete Hallman when he was teaching at Wildern School in the 1990s. Since then it has been performed all over the world. Now we are presenting it with completely new music and with several completely brand new songs contributed by Rob Sedgwick and myself. It is the first time that we have ever undertaken such a task and we hope you enjoy the fruits of our labours.

Yours sincerely

John Baxter
