

B L A C K E Y

Fascinating Facts

M A N I F E S T

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Septimius Severus was an African who became the Roman emperor. He died in York, in the north of England.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Crisps were invented, by accident, by George Crum a Black chef at a New York hotel.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Willis Johnson created the egg-beater, a device which revolutionised the world of cooking.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Fred Jones invented the portable X-Ray machine which has saved countless lives.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Dale Hill Williams performed the first open heart surgery in 1893. The patient survived and lived another 50 years.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The first Black Professional Footballer was Arthur Wharton who signed for Preston North End in 1886.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

William Hall was the first Black recipient of the Victoria Cross. He was awarded the medal for bravery during the Crimean war in 1857.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

There has been an African Queen of England. George III's wife, Charlotte, had African ancestry.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Viv Anderson became the first Black Footballer to be capped by England in 1978.

Can you find out anymore fascinating facts related to Black History Month?

