

Mr Manson

My parents are both from Scotland (west coast) but my Mum's Grandma was a Russian Jewish immigrant.

Also, as my Dad was in the army, I was born in Germany and started school in Hong Kong. So my family were immigrants to this country and I have been an immigrant in other countries.

Mrs Salmon

I was born and bred in Andover and my parents are local too.

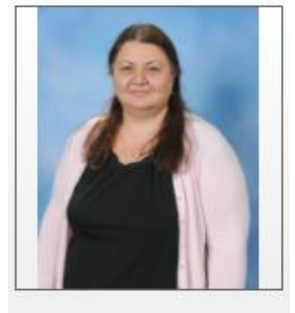

Not very exciting!

Mr Mann

Both of my parents are from Scotland (Glasgow and Inverness)

Mrs Gibbs

I am Bulgarian, born in Varna. My parents are also Bulgarian.

Mrs Todd

My maternal grandfather was Welsh, but my other three grandparents were all from London, Kent or Cumbria.

However, there was a story in my maternal grandmother's family, that they were descended from a Spanish sailor who had swum ashore to a West Country beach in 1588, from one of the ships of the Armada, after it had either foundered or been sunk by Drake and his mates. The man, with no money or means to return to Spain, allegedly settled in the area and married a local girl.

Mrs Marsh

My father was German, born in Berlin. His family moved to Italy in 1933 and my grandfather bought Liechtenstein nationality for his children. My father came to England in 1938 to go to University.

I therefore have dual nationality with Liechtenstein and my cousins live in Liechtenstein and Austria.

My mother was English.

Mrs Roberts

I was born and bred in Andover, my parents originally both being from London.

My great grandmother was German and her grandparents were both Russian.

Dr Sharkey

My mother is English and my father is from Zimbabwe. I was born in Scotland, moved to Germany, moved back to Scotland, then moved to England.

Mrs Vanderplank

My mum's family came from Italy at the beginning of the 20th century. My dad is half Scottish. I was born and bred in England.

Ms Pittman

My great great grandmother was Mi'kmaq.
Sadly, we don't know her native name, only the British name she had when she married my great great grandfather who was a British sailor.

Mrs Parsons

All of my family are from London (north - because apparently that matters!) with the exception of my Great Grandad on Mum's side, who was Irish.

Mr Woods

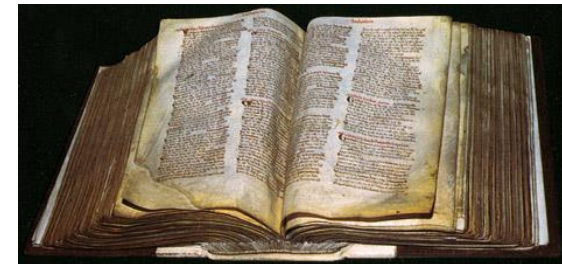

I am white. My dad is white, my mum is white. My mum is from Finkley, my dad is from Shaftesbury. We are called Woods because we lived in the woods (fact - dad did the research) and the woods was around here somewhere. I am from here, gone nowhere and done nothing.

Challenge - use that in your assembly.

The History of Andover

- Began as a Saxon village and first appears in history around 950 AD
- The Domesday Book said that there was a total population of around 500 people in 1086
- By 14th century there were around 1400 people
- Made money from wool and leather

The History of Andover

- In 1569 a school for boys was set up in Andover (John Hanson)
- The plague struck Andover in 1603, 1625 and 1636
- By 18th century around 30 stagecoaches passed through Andover every day
- 1785 Ladies Walk was built
- 1875 Water pipes were built to directly pump water into Andover

The History of Andover

- By 1960 it was decided that Andover should become an 'overspill' town for London
- The plan was that, by 1982, the population should rise to 42000
- Floral Way, Cricketers Way, River Way, Admirals Way, King Arthurs and Roman Way were all built in 1960s
- In 1960s many industrial estates were built including the Twinings factory

The History of Andover

- More recently we have had more building at Augusta Park
- People from Europe have come to Andover- notably from Portugal (at first to work at Vitacress) and then from Eastern Europe, Nepal and other countries

History of Immigration to UK

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LGpn04KVjwg>

We are all the Same ...?

No we are not!

BUT ... we should all have the same rights

