Learning for life, success for all.

British Values

“Schools should promote fundamental British values...”

Put your hand up if.....

- You have brown hair
- Wear glasses
- Have a brother or sister
- Like football
- Can speak another language
- Born in this country
- Know what you want to be when you're older

All these things help make up your identity

So what else makes up your personal identity?

- Groups or clubs that you belong to - scouts, rugby, choir....
- What your interests or talents are - film, dance, sports....
- What your hopes are for the future.
- Which people are important to you.
- Your religion
- The languages that you speak.
- Which country you are from.

What you value also makes up part of who you are

HWCS Core Values

Students

- Allow teachers to teach and encourage others to learn.
- Try your best at all times in school.
- Accept consequences when given.
- Listen to and follow instructions.
- Respect the classroom and school environment.
- Act positively upon feedback given by staff.
- Complete homework and hand in on time.

Students & Adults

- Treat others as you want to be treated.
- Don't accept/allow aggressive/humiliating or intimidating behaviors.
- Deal with situations calmly and respect everyone's personal space.
- Try not to shout and lose your temper. Arrive at lessons on time and be fully prepared.
- Listen to everyone and accept that people have different opinions/beliefs.
- Cross appropriately.

Staff

- Provide a safe and stimulating learning environment.
- Plan interesting lessons to meet the needs of individual students.
- Set targets and mark work when agreed.
- Give regular feedback.
- Never issue whole class consequences for the actions of individuals.
- Make an effort to get to know and understand your students.
- Give rewards to those who try their best.

We have talked about personal values, but can a country have values?

We all live in Britain, what do you think British values are?

Democracy

The rule of law

Mutual Respect

British Values

Individual liberty

Tolerance of those with different faiths
and beliefs

Malala: The girl who was shot for going to school

Let's look at that list of British Values again:

- democracy
- the rule of law
- individual liberty
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

Take a moment to think about how lucky we are to live in Britain, a country with such strong values.
