

Andover Rocks on April 1st 2017 in a bid to maintain essential support for the town's young people

- This is the first event of its kind in Andover and is modelled on 'Camden Rocks' a successful music event held annually in London
- The event will raise in excess of £5000 to maintain access to 'The Junction' and its services which are under threat following a decision by Hampshire County Council to withdraw funding earlier this year.
- Lloyds have pledged to match the total amount of funds raised through this initiative.
- Events taking place across 5 venues offering music workshops for children, Drum Runners and Gospel through to live music performances for adults from the likes of Torn Off Strips and Jon Walsh.
- One wristband buys access to over 45 different music sessions for a whole day

About Andover Rocks

Andover Rocks is an innovative music event which is being held on April 1st 2017 to raise much needed funds for The Junction and music intervention in Adult mental health. The event consists of a whole day and evening of music and music related workshops being held across 5 venues around the town. The aim is to provide something musical for everyone from well-known acts such as The Torn off Strips and Jon Walsh through to more alternative events like the Gong Bath, Drum Running, Gospel Choir and Poetry to Open Mic. In addition String brokers are providing free 20 minute guitar lessons

The Venues are:

- The Methodist church
- The Rock House
- The White Hart
- The Time Ring
- The Hayward Suite (Wolversdene Club)

Tickets - Tickets are £10 per adult, £2.50 a child, 5 and under's are free, please note this is a roaming ticket and will get you access to all venues. Tickets are available from Stringbrokers, The White Hart, The Rock House, The Wolversdene Club, The Methodist Church, The Junction and MBE.
