Harrow Way is an oversubscribed, vibrant and successful school reflecting our very strong performance and upward trend in examination outcomes. We are a Mathematics and Computing Specialist School as well as being recognised by the National Arts Council with their prestigious Artsmark Gold Award. In addition we hold the Computing at School (Lead School Award), Geography Quality Mark, The BIG AWARD which is given for excellence in bullying intervention and the Teacher Development Trust Silver award). We have also been awarded with Healthy Schools' status.

We are proud to be at the forefront of curriculum development and whole-school innovation. We are committed to continuing to raise the achievement of all our students through high quality teaching and learning.

We are looking for a new face to join our History department who will further enhance our students' academic achievement and contribute to us becoming outstanding.

Our door is open to any talented History teacher. We offer a department keen to give support whenever you need it.

To be successful, we will expect you to have:

- Drive, determination and spirit
- Organisation skills that allow you to get the most from every student
- A commitment to delivering outstanding lessons
- Enthusiasm for passing on your knowledge to young people
- Communication skills and confidence to deliver teaching and learning
- The desire to achieve in an environment that rewards excellence
