

After the success of Grease at The Lights last summer, AMTC Starlights Youth Theatre are on the search again for local young singing, acting and dancing talent to take part in their next show Sister Act.

If you are aged 11-17 (anyone in school/college years 6-13) and interested in performing in our production then come along and meet the director Carol Robinson and Musical Director Colin Gray at our

Sister Act launch event

Saturday 23 March 2019 at 10:00am

STUDIO 2 at The Lights Andover

This feel-good musical comedy, based on the hit 1992 film, follows the exploits of disco diva Deloris Van Cartier, who having witnessed a murder, is put into hiding in a convent for her own protection from her gangster boyfriend and his henchmen. Disguised as a nun, she finds herself at odds with the rigid lifestyle until, inspiring the convent choir with her disco moves and singing ability, she forms seemingly unbreakable bonds of friendship with her "sisters". Meanwhile the threat of being discovered by her pursuers is ever present....

Auditions to be held at Rookwood School on Sunday 31 March 2019

Performances will take place at The Lights 1-3 August 2019

Rehearsals are Saturdays 10 – 1 at The Lights Andover

For more information visit the AMTC Starlights Youth Theatre Facebook page or www.andovermusicaltheatre.co.uk

