What parents like about our school:

Transition is superb!

The school creates a sense of belonging and offers brilliant learning opportunities

Fantastic teachers who inspire the students

It's an absolutely fantastic school it has so much to offer

Strong leadership, dedicated staff

Professional staff, commitment to every child, kindness and consideration

Inclusive and diverse. Strong desire for each student to do as well as they can.

All round good performance - tutors, subject teachers, support staff & extra curricular. All are strengths.

Plenty of opportunities to extend learning out of the classroom

Students emotional wellbeing is strongly supported.

The culture of respect and engagement in learning.

I always feel comfortable if I need to raise a concern because of the professionalism throughout the school.

What we are adding to our Improvement Plan as a result of this survey:

- Improving the information we share with parents about our curriculum.
- Improvements to our site, including bathroom facilities.
- Consider outdoor sheltered spaces for break and lunchtime.
- Continued emphasis on high expectations with a focus on student manners.
