What parents like about our school:

- You always put the child's needs first
- Wealth of extra curricular opportunities
- Passionate and dedicated teaching staff
- The way you respond to parents' concerns is very good
- Strong leadership
- A great level of respect between teachers and students
- Students are recognised for their achievements
- The unwavering commitment to students to develop their knowledge and set them up for success after secondary school.
- Your Year 7 Transition programme was very inclusive, fun and robust
- Forward thinking
- The community feel and charity work
- I cannot thank Harrow Way enough for all they have done for my child in terms of inclusivity and enabling them to thrive.

What we are adding to our Improvement Plan as a result of this survey:

- Improving homework so it supports learning and is manageable for students and families
- Developing a uniform that is smart, comfortable and affordable
- Ensuring all students make excellent progress, with strong stretch and challenge for the most able
- Continuing to develop our positive points system to recognise effort, achievement and contribution
- Installing an outdoor covered area for break and lunchtimes
